A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Welcome to the October/November Edition.

October is the perfect month to head out for a day trip to a local beauty spot, to the park, to a wood, or forest or to a stately home. The air is crisp and clean and the sunlight inspiring as the vistas invite us to sit a while and take in the beauty around us.

'Remember, remember the fifth of November' is something all children learn at school. It commemorates an assassination attempt on King James I by Guy Fawkes who planned to blow up the Houses of Parliament with barrels of gunpowder. So, around the country on the fifth an effigy of Fawkes is burned on bonfires whilst spectators enjoy fireworks and eating baked potatoes and traditional toffees.

On Remembrance Day we remember all those who gave their lives to secure the freedoms from tyranny that we continue to enjoy. Many of us have relatives who fought in the First or Second World War or subsequent conflicts and at this time of year we take the time to think about their sacrifice.

Although the days might be getting shorter and the weather colder, wetter and more changeable there is plenty going on this Autumn.

If you would like to promote a business locally - we would love to help by bringing a wealth of knowledge and experience in connecting businesses with local communities, creating eye-catching adverts and making sure each door gets a copy of their directory full of local talent. Give us a call or email for a friendly chat. We are a small local business too, we only thrive if your business thrives, so we do our best to make sure you are seen and recognised by local residents who receive, read, retain and reference Stonesthrow Directories.

Here are some dates for your calendar: 26th October - Daylight Saving Time ends; 31st October - Halloween; 5th November - Guy's Fawkes Day; 9th November - Remembrance Day.

As always, we ask you to please remember to mention Stonesthrow Directories when calling our Advertisers.

However you decide to spend next couple of months - keep your heart and your business local.

Yours, Stonesthrow Publications.

Misty Double Glazing?

Hi My name is Dave Millidge, let me introduce my company where I repair windows and replace misted up Double glazed units.

The area that I cover is Coventry and Warwickshire. You may have seen me around in your street or even have family and friends who I have worked for in the past ten years, with over 6,000 satisfied customers during that period. I started Misty to Clear to give customers the best value repairs in the current climate.

The Misty to Clear website allows total transparency of the customer experience. You can log into the website and view work that I have carried out. You can also leave feedback on social media. Therefore I give a 5 year guarantee on all new double glazed units fitted by Misty to Clear.

This is a genuine guarantee which does not come as an extra to my price.

I started Misty to Clear mindful that the cost of repairs is probably key to most people's budget when using tradesmen to do work on their behalf in their homes.

I offer a lower cost service to both old and new customers as I operate directly for the customer with no additional hidden charges or insurance costs to you the customer.

So my Company name is Misty to Clear where I can offer steamed up window glass replacement and fix broken handles, hinges, seals, window locks and door locks.

I also change glass in Velux windows too.

Satisfaction guaranteed to be a high standard that carries a 5 year manufacturer backed guarantee.

Clearly a great service!

GET CREATIVE

THIS HALLOWEEN

Make this Halloween one to remember with these brilliant events potentially be hosted in your community... and if they're not, how about doing it yourself!

TRICK OR TREAT TRAIL It is not unusual now for local businesses to club together for a Halloween Trail, whereby children follow a map collecting sweets and clues on the way.

If there isn't a trail in your area, why not suggest one to your neighbours - a great way to create community spirit and bring joy to your little monsters.

CHARITY EVENT Find or host a charity event with a spooky twist. This could include a haunted fun run, a bake sale featuring Halloween treats, or even a fancy-dress ball.

Encourage participants to donate to a local cause while enjoying the festivities... this is also a great excuse to bust out that mummy costume you've been working on!

ESCAPE ROOMS Most local Escape Rooms will have a dedicated Halloween experience where Participants can work together to solve puzzles, unlock secrets and 'escape' before time runs out.

You can also create your own room at home, choosing themes like haunted mansions, cursed libraries or abandoned laboratories.

A DEADLY DINNER Host a murder mystery dinner with a Halloween twist. Design a script featuring eerie characters and invite participants to dress up and solve the mystery. Either do this at home with your friends, or create a community event at your local hall.

GHOST TOUR If your town boasts historic sites or heritage landmarks, Halloween is the perfect time to explore their spooky stories. Organise guided ghost tours, sharing local legends and mysteries. This idea combines education with entertainment, making it an excellent option for all ages.

PUMPKIN PICKING Following in the footsteps of our American friends, pumpkin patches have been popping everywhere.

A brilliant day out for the kids, these events allow you pick your own pumpkin, indulge in some spooky crafts and enjoy festive seasonal such as toasted marshmallows and pumpkin spiced lattes.

SILENT DISCO So as not to wake the dead, dance with headphones on your head. That's right, silent discos are not only an easy and affordable way to take a party anywhere, they also won't annoy the local terrors (like moody Martin who lives upstairs).

HALLOWEEN BINGO Bingo nights are brilliant fun for all and can easily be adapted for certain times of year. Dress up, drink blood red punch and work your voodoo to win the top prize.

ZOMBIE PUB CRAWL True, some town centres seem to host a zombie pub crawl every weekend, but this one is strictly for Halloween.

Gather your mates, dress like the undead, visit all your favourite pubs (the older and spookier the better), and forgo eating brains for quaffing delicious IPAs and ales. Terrifically good fun.

HOROSCOPES

ARIES

(MARCH 21 - APRIL 20)

The Libra Sun and communicative Mercury both occupy a pivotal sector of your chart, suggesting that some exciting developments appear to be up for grabs during the first half of this month. The powerful Libra new moon on the 21st challenges you to up your game and reach out to take some risks, but be sure to weight up both sides of any disagreement before making a final decision.

TAURUS

(APRIL 21 - MAY 21)

Your financial situation, earning potential and your values are all your top priorities this month as dynamic Mars in Scorpio challenges you to review these areas of your life. The Sun and Mercury, both in balanced Libra, suggest the possibility of some kind of future joint venture. Venus, your ruling planet, moves from Virgo to Libra on the 14th, indicating that some practical decisions may have to be made before then.

GEMINI

(MAY 22 - JUNE 21)

Love and romance are in the spotlight during October as the Sun and communicative Mercury stir up any issues concerning your relationships. Mercury, your ruler, joins Mars in Scorpio on the 7th, finding balance is a key issue this month and some deep soul searching may well be needed. It may be best to think carefully and weigh all your options before you express your opinion.

CANCER

(JUNE 22 - JULY 22)

Home and family are your top priorities this month, particularly after the 14th as Venus joins the Sun in Libra, the sign of the scales. Jupiter is positive in your sign and the powerful Libra new moon on the 21st highlights a brilliant new beginning and gives you the opportunity to speak your mind as your thinking becomes much clearer and you prepare to forge ahead with an important decision.

LEO

(JULY 23 - AUGUST 23)

With the assistance of the radiant Sun and quick thinking Mercury, both in the sign of the scales, October is looking very positive for all levels of communication and negotiations. Your mind should be open but focussed in order to expand your knowledge. Action planet Mars in Scorpio is stirring up the domestic area of your chart, you may need to attend to some emotional intensity concerning important family matters this month.

VIRGO

(AUGUST 24 - SEPTEMBER 22)

Exciting new beginnings are evident as the month commences, the Libra Sun shines brightly on your financial situation and with the assistance of business minded Mercury some pre-planned changes can now be given the go ahead. A positive Libra new moon on the 21st brings your attention to what is really important and helps you to ignore or dismiss what is no longer valid in your life.

LIBRA

(SEPTEMBER 23 - OCTOBER 23)

This month's planetary activity turns your attention to your love life. Relationships and romance are highlighted, particularly after Venus, your ruling planet, arrives in your sign on the 14th. Your powers of communication should be at a highpoint, assisting with any important decisions that need to be made. Your new moon on the 21st gives you a strong boost to achieving your goals.

SCORPIO

(OCTOBER 24 - NOVEMBER 22)

The Libran Sun and communicative Mercury start the month in the most introspective part of your chart, indicating that you need to take care of your physical health as your vitality may not be at its best. Power planet Pluto, your ruler, turns direct on the 14th and offers you the chance to reconnect with your determination and courage and clear the path for innovative new projects.

SAGITTARIUS

(NOVEMBER 23 - DECEMBER 21)

Venus shines brightly at the highest point of your chart until the 14th, be sure to use this time wisely for connecting with new directions and challenges within your career. Abundant Jupiter, your ruler, offers opportunities in your financial area. It is vital that you steer your energy towards realistic targets that can be completed with hard work and determination.

CAPRICORN

(DECEMBER 22 - JANUARY 20)

Jupiter is strong in your opposite sign this month, indicating that love and romance are both important themes. There is also a challenge to your work and career situation as the radiant Libra Sun and business minded Mercury both illuminate the highpoint of your chart. Try not to give in to unnecessary self-criticism, as your task this month is to balance logic with imagination. Opportunities arrive after the Libra new moon on the 21st.

AQUARIUS

(JANUARY 21 - FEBRUARY 18)

Planetary patterns are urging you to take up a new form of study that can eventually lead to enhanced wisdom and spiritual growth. Venus arrives in Libra on the 14th, indicating that a balanced view is now required to push you forward and achieve your dreams. The powerful full moon in fiery Aries on the 7th brings with it a new dynamic, stirring up your appetite for new beginnings.

PISCES

(FEBRUARY 19 - MARCH 20)

An exciting creative opportunity appears to be up for grabs during October as the full moon in Aries on the 7th is activated by abundant Jupiter in Cancer. This powerful energy challenges you to up your game and reach out to take some risks. Action planet Mars remains in powerful Scorpio all month, indicating that some exciting travel plans are coming your way.

GET WALKING

THIS AUTUMN

Whether alone, accompanied by your dog, or within a group, a country walk is good for mind, body and soul.

So shop locally to get the equipment and provisions you need and get exploring, because the great outdoors really is... great!

WHY WALK

Much is made of the benefits walking brings, and there is a reason for that.

Firstly, it's free, which means anyone can do it. It's also low impact, so doesn't put a huge strain on your bones or muscles, making it ideal for those who aren't in peak fitness or have mild mobility issues.

Of course, we all know walking can improve mental health, and if combined with a social aspect (like within a walking group), can really provide simple pleasure and joy.

Other health wins include strengthening the cardiovascular system, significantly reducing the risk of serious conditions, including heart disease and strokes.

Plus, as winter unfolds, the risk of colds and flu intensifies, so engaging in regular walking activities strengthens and invigorates your immune system, transforming it into a formidable defence against these seasonal adversaries.

Finally, as a natural weight-bearing exercise, walking plays a crucial role in maintaining bone health.

GETTING STARTED

To embark on your walking journey, equip yourself with snug shoes for foot comfort and don appropriate warm clothing to shield against the brisk winter temperatures.

Lightweight waterproofs are handy in case of a shower, and a water bottle for hydration is key, along with a couple of healthy snack bars if you're planning on going a few miles.

Keep motivated by using a pedometer (most smartphones have these inbuilt) and ensure you have access to either a map, guidebook or a GPS app that doesn't require phone signal.

Treats and a water bowl will be key if you're taking a furry friend, and if you're grappling with a long-term condition, the CSP (Chartered Society of Physiotherapists) website offers insightful advice on aligning activity with your needs.

MAKE IT FUN

Though solitude can be a positive aspect of walking for some, for others the activity can be a fantastic way to meet new friends. Unlike cycling clubs or sports teams, walking is an activity those who are less athletic can enjoy while also allowing for conversation and connection on the way. So check out local noticeboards or online resources to find suitable groups aimed at your ability, age bracket, fitness level or similar interests.

Finally, planned walking outings often end on, or have in the middle, a trip to the pub for food and drinks. This allows you to replenish those calories you've lost, slake your thirst, and properly get to know your new buddies. Now that's an exercise regime few can sniff at!

Volunteers Wanted

Would you like to be an Older Friend to a child for regular outings of just 2-3 hours?

Volunteer Chris tells us about his role as a friend to a child in need of friendship due to the difficult circumstances he has grown up in.

I first met Luke when he was 10 years old. I remember the impression of a quiet boy that really needed to be liked. He was sensitive, intuitive and in those early years would often give me pictures that he had drawn for me when I picked him up each week. He enjoyed physical activities, we played football and tag in the park, went swimming, cycling and walking. He also liked to talk and I would ensure that either during or around these activities we always had time for conversation.

I focused on being a friend and not a parent, but I would often steer our conversations towards what type of person he wanted to be and whether he had been heading towards or away from being that person in the past week. In his early teenage years, he would often skulk out of his home with his hood pulled over his face and grunt at my questions as we drove to our activity that week. But by the time we arrived at our destination and as we unloaded bikes from the car or set off on our walk he would open up, and our conversations would often be quite serious about his feelings, how he should react in some of the different situations that he was encountering.

I always enjoyed our conversations, although I often felt that he did not listen or rejected some of what I suggested. But then I would hear my words repeated back to me, often weeks later, or he would describe to me how he had changed his behaviour or tried something that I had suggested instead of just thumping someone.

Friendships have to finish on the younger friends 17th birthday. I always expected it to finish earlier than that - hanging around with a 60 year old man is not very cool for a teenage boy. Our friendship just seemed to get stronger and stronger and I will keep in contact with him.

I have a new young friend now. He is 7 years old and a very different character to Luke. I am both excited and nervous as I set out on this completely new adventure with my new friend.
Chris
